

Examples of curriculum principles

Curriculum principles are the core values that your school believes will give both your pupils and community the best chance of thriving and succeeding. They help you develop a curriculum vision, and should be particular to your setting, taking account the needs of your school community.

Here are some examples:

- Our curriculum will be broad and balanced.
- Our curriculum will be literacy-rich.
- Our curriculum will be accessible for all.
- Our curriculum will be child-centred.
- Our curriculum will be strongly linked to the environment.
- Our curriculum will involve our community.
- Our curriculum will encourage curiosity and engagement.
- Our curriculum will balance knowledge and skills.
- Our curriculum will foster global awareness.
- Our curriculum will be rooted in the values of our faith.
